Freezing temperatures combined with lots of snow make travel difficult

A massive chain-reaction pileup involving more than 100 vehicles snarled Interstate 196 near Zeeland on Monday morning, January 19, leaving several people injured and forcing a lengthy closure of the highway amid hazardous winter conditions.

The crash — reported at about 10:19 a.m. took place in white-out snowstorm conditions near the 64th Avenue area of Zeeland Township, near Holland. Police and state troopers say the slippery roads and near-zero visibility caused vehicles to slide into one another in a devastating chain of collisions affecting cars, SUVs and at least 30 to 40 semi-trucks.

Authorities responded to numerous reports of crashes, slide-offs and jack-knifed semitrailers strewn across the interstate. The pileup quickly grew to involve roughly 100 vehicles as drivers lost control in the storm, resulting in a chaotic scene that completely stopped traffic in both directions between the Hudsonville and Zeeland exits.

Emergency crews — including local fire departments, ambulance services, Michigan State Police, Zeeland police and the Ottawa County Sheriff's Office — worked for hours to clear the wreckage, assist the injured and manage traffic. Snow removal equipment and even snowmobiles were used to reach stranded motorists in parts of the crash site that were difficult to access.

Officials confirmed that at least nine to twelve people were injured, though no fatalities have been reported at this time. Those with injuries were transported to nearby hospitals, and others who were unhurt were taken off the highway for safety.

To assist stranded drivers, buses from Hudsonville Public Schools and MAX Transit were used to transport people from the scene to Hudsonville High School, where they could find shelter and arrange pickup by family or friends. Authorities encouraged those stuck at the scene to stay in their vehicles until help arrived and to avoid the area if possible.

The National Weather Service had issued winter weather warnings and advisories for West Michigan as the storm brought heavy snowfall, strong winds and dangerously low visibility. Officials stressed that the white-out conditions were a significant factor in the scale of the pileup, urging drivers across the region to avoid non-essential travel until roads improve.

Both directions of I-196 reopened later Monday evening after crews worked through much of the day to remove wrecked vehicles and debris.

Downtown Allegan on Monday afternoon looks rather forlorn as Hubbard St. is covered in snow with plow drifts ten feet high. Usually it is extremely difficult to find a parking space, but not on this day.

Warming Center open for those seeking shelter, warmth

The January high temperatures have continually been in the teens or low twenties when the average is usually around 30 degrees. Fortunately, thanks to the efforts of Will and Angela Walker, the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd and the First Presbyterian Church have established the Allegan Warming Center.

This week, January 18-24, 2026, the Center is open from 5-9pm at Good Shepherd, 101 N. Walnut St. Anyone looking for a warmer place to spend the evening can drop in for conversation, a meal, warm beverages, recharge electronics, and sometimes a movie or a game. Beginning Sun., Jan. 25th, the Warming Center will be at First Presbyterian, 200 Cutler St., where the doors will be open to provide a warm place and meal.

Each evening has team members available to assist with simple needs. This is Allegan's first formal Warming Center that began operating in December 2025 when the temperature dropped below 32 degrees. The team has been able to assist a number of Allegan's unhoused and visitors passing through Allegan. No questions are asked. The doors are open and all are welcome. Photo: J. Hotchkiss

Chief Judges named to Allegan County Courts

By Gari Voss

The Honorable Matthew Antkoviak of the Allegan County 48th Circuit Court received notice from the Honorable Megan Cavanagh, Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, that he was reappointed to Chief Circuit Court Judge in Allegan County beginning January 1, 2026. Chief Judge Antkoviak of the 48th Circuit Court joins Chief Judge Joseph S. Skocelas of the 57th District Court to provide the administrative support of the judges in Allegan County.

Being appointed as chief judge is an honor while being a responsibility. That responsibility is to Michigan's judiciary, to colleagues in the home courts, and to each person who steps into the courtroom. But the expectation is that these judges not only work within the judicial system but also in the communities that their courts serve.

In Judge Antkoviak's letter of appointment, Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court Megan Cavanagh stated, "In accepting this appointment, you also accept this challenge: A justice must be available to everyone, not just to those who can afford it. To enhance access, we must work diligently to ensure that our courts are open to all. At the same time the judiciary must be adapted to the needs of those it serves and attuned to the problems and concerns of the communities that most depend on our work. This means that judges must be willing to engage with civic organizations and community leaders, taking the lead in being responsive to the needs of those we serve."

The Allegan County courts have been anchored by a respected group of judges and support staff. Whether the 48th Circuit Court, the 57th District Court, or the Probate Court, the responsibilities of the chief judges are similar while focusing on their areas of expertise.

The 48th Circuit Court will concentrate on trials for all felonies, civil suits over $25,000, and all family matters like divorce, custody issues, child support, adoption, and domestic violence. Judges of the Family Division have jurisdiction over cases involving juvenile delinquents, abused and neglected children, adoptions, name changes, emancipation, and parental consent waivers. It also reviews decisions from the county, municipal, and magistrate courts or administrative agencies.

While the Circuit Court addresses the higher level issues, the 57th District Court takes care of suits of $25,000 or less, adult criminal misdemeanor offenses punishable up to one year in prison, civil infractions or traffic violations, landlord-tenant disputes, small claims civil suits of $6,500 or less, and land contract forfeitures. It is the District Court that can issue arrest and search warrants, set bail and accept bonds, conduct arraignments for misdemeanors and felonies, and perform marriage ceremonies.

Not to be forgotten is the Probate Court. In Allegan County, one judge handles estates and trusts of the deceased, guardianships, conservatorships for minors and adults, mental health situations, delayed registrations of foreign birth, drain appeals, and can hold wills for safe keeping. This means ensuring that vulnerable individuals are protected including finance management and mental health.

Peanut Butter Drive begins under new food collaborative leadership

By Gari Voss

Hungry For Christ is well known for its passion and expertise in food distribution and hunger relief. HFC has taken on the leadership of the Allegan County Food Pantry Collaborative (ACFPC), and has announced two extremely important programs that will assist in meeting the needs of those suffering from food insecurity – the Peanut Butter Drive and the 2nd Annual Puzzle Contest Fundraiser.

The Peanut Butter Drive begins on National Peanut Butter Day, January 24, 2026, and will continue accepting donations of jars of peanut butter and/or monetary donations that will purchase bulk orders of peanut butter until February 28, 2026. There are distribution centers to drop off the jars of peanut butter across Allegan County. Watch the Allegan County Community Foundation (ACCF) at alleganfoundation.org or the Allegan County Community Foundation Facebook page for drop sites.

The 2nd Annual Puzzle Contest Fundraiser will be February 19, 2026, from 6:30-8pm at 4565 135th Avenue in Hamilton. Registration is required through Hungry For Christ on their Facebook page or call 269 264-1307. There is a suggested donation of a jar of peanut butter and $5. Bring a friend and enjoy the puzzle competition.

The Allegan County Community Foundation (ACCF) and Hungry for Christ (HfC) announced that HFC would begin taking the care and leadership of the Allegan County Food Pantry Collaborative (ACFPC) beginning January 1, 2026. This was referred to as an exciting new chapter for ACFPC.

The ACFPC was launched in 2009 to unite the local food pantries serving communities across Allegan County. This was an effort to strengthen partnerships and maximize resources in meeting the needs of the hungry. The collaborative began as a small coalition that has grown into a strong, county-wide network of 17 pantries and 1 food club. These organized food distribution sites serve thousands of households each year.

“This transition is truly something to celebrate,” said Lauren Hunt-Vanderploeg, Community Impact Manager at ACCF. “What started as a vision to bring pantries together has blossomed into a powerful network, changing lives every day. We are incredibly proud of this work and confident that Hungry For Christ’s leadership will only deepen and expand its impact.”

To ensure a smoother transition from ACCF to HFC, ACCF granted an additional $24,000 over 2 years to the ACFPC for the specific purpose of supporting protein needs. In addition, ACCF will continue financial support of the program through the ACFPC foundation funds.

“We are honored and excited to continue the mission of the ACFPC!” said Tracy Brower, Executive Director of Hungry For Christ. “This new endeavor at HFC will not only open doors of opportunity but also expand the footprint of our mission and strengthen our relationships with the community in the fight against hunger. Thank you, Allegan County Community Foundation, for believing in us! Your ongoing commitment, dedication, and faithful generosity truly showcase the heart of the foundation. As you hand off the baton, may we continue to run the race worth fighting for.”

As it begins with this new leadership, the Allegan County Food Pantry Collaborative will continue to thrive as a hub for shared resources, best practices, and collective action, ensuring that no family in Allegan County has to face hunger alone.

For more information about the ACFPC or to learn how you can get involved, please contact Hungry For Christ at 269 264-1307.

Brockway retires after 50 years at pharmacy

After more than five decades of dedicated service to patients and the profession of pharmacy, Allegan community member Andrew Brockway is officially retiring from active practice. His remarkable career began in 1972 at Henry Ford Hospital, followed by roles at Wyandotte Hospital in 1974 and Bon Secours in 1976. In 1978, Andy joined Allegan General Hospital - now Beacon Allegan Hospital - where he has been a cornerstone of the pharmacy team for nearly 48 years.

Throughout his career, Andy’s commitment to patient care and his passion for advancing pharmacy services have left an indelible mark on the Allegan community. His expertise and leadership have guided countless patients and colleagues, supporting the hospital’s mission to provide exceptional care.

Although Andy is stepping away from his professional role, his dedication to the hospital and community remains unwavering. Today, you’ll find him volunteering at the hospital every Thursday, greeting patients and visitors with the same energy and professionalism that defined his career. Recently, Andy was elected to the reinstated community board of Beacon Allegan Hospital, where he continues to advocate for expanded services and improved care for local residents.

Wayland Union High School presents Checking In

By Gari Voss

The theater students at Wayland Union High School are ready to check in. That is, they will check in with the one-act play, Checking In by Tracy Wells. The production takes Main Stage at the Wayland Union Fine Arts Center, 870 E. Superior St. in Wayland on Thursday, January 22, and Friday, January 27, 2026, at 7pm.

A recap of the action states, “At the Regency Arms Hotel, the comfort of the guests comes first—and no one knows that better than bellhop Bernard and housekeeper Natasha. But while Bernard tries to woo Natasha and manage the guests’ luggage, it’s the other baggage the guests bring that keeps him on his toes! Checking In tells a lifetime of stories including an expectant mom going into labor, a teenager learning to see the world beyond a screen, a couple finding love, the craziness of traveling with kids, and, finally, waiting too long to take that dream vacation. These stories reflect the theme that “life is a journey—travel it well” and remind us that as we travel through life, it’s the people we journey with who make it special.”

Tickets can be purchased for $6 at the door or @ WUFACickets.Ludus.

Faces in the Crowd

By G C Stoppel

The recent shootings in Minneapolis, Minnesota and Portland, Oregon, along with the rising tensions between liberals and conservatives is worrisome. Some people believe we are on the brink of another civil war. Your thoughts, please:

-Man near the hardware store in Fennville. “Yup. Afraid so. It’s scary out there, and not just for Hispanics, but everyone. Pretty soon people will react and it won’t be pretty.”

-Man with him: “Ah, you worry too much. It was like this during Vietnam. You remember when those National Guard soldiers shot students at Kent State? Now, that was a dangerous time.”

-Woman outside the Fennville pharmacy: “Me and my husband, we’re both concealed carry. If things get bad, we’ll defend ourselves if it comes to it. A few years we got into prepping, so we’re not worried.”

-Woman near the Blue Goose: “It’s the only thing in the news, and every time Trump or one of his top people say anything, it gets worse. The scary one is that JD Vance, the Vice President. He just looks mean, and Hegseth looks like he’s a dry drunk. Both of them are just spoiling for a fight. If Trump dies in office, look out!”

-Couple near the Allegan County Library; Man: “Like the authorities keep telling people - just comply and do as you’re told and you won’t get hurt.” Woman: “It’s the Democrats that always stir things up.”

-Woman, same location: “I just hope ICE doesn’t come here. It’s scary. And you want to know what’s worse? ALL of Michigan is under the jurisdiction of the Customs and Border Patrol! They could turn up here, too, and it would be perfectly legal.”

-Man near the Allegan Post Office, looks around and said quietly, “Trump is completely deranged. He’s a madman and he’s going to take the whole country down if he isn’t stopped soon. People are afraid to say anything cause they might get narked and then one of those black vans will be coming for them. It’s a scary time and it could get a whole lot worse real fast.”

-Young man near Allegan City Hall: “I got other things to think about; not about something that’s a long way from here.”

-Older man, same location: “Civil war? Yeah, I’m sure it’ll happen, but I don’t know when. Here’s what I think. This year at the elections, people will turn on Trump because of the economy, the domestic troubles, you name it. They’ll swing the House and Senate to the Democrats. Before they get sworn in, there’ll be talk of impeaching Trump. He’ll get on the air and use his Truth Social to tell his people to get out and take back the country.” When asked, “After that, then what?” the man said, “It won’t matter anymore.”

Community Foundation launches children's savings account program

By ACCF Staff & Gari Voss

The Allegan County Community Foundation has begun to launch their new Children's Savings Account (CSA) program made possible with a generous grant from the Community Economic Development Association of Michigan (CEDAM). Thanks to the New Program Development & Administration Grant from CEDAM, ACCF will be able to develop My Future Fund, a CSA program in Allegan County, empowering students to pursue their choice of postsecondary career pathways.

Michigan's CSA programs are community-led initiatives that establish community-wide support systems to encourage students, their families, and entire communities to dream big. CSA programs engage students and their families early on by enrolling them in a community-based savings or investment account where students and their families are encouraged to save and plan for the future. These funds go on to provide financial support for students' endeavors after high school no matter if they choose college, a trade school, career training, or another form of schooling. As part of the Michigan CSA Network, these programs are located throughout the state. The New Program Development & Administration Grant is specifically to develop, launch, and manage a CSA program, thereby expanding economic opportunities for Michigan's children. With this funding, ACCF has begun to launch My Future Fund, which will establish savings accounts beginning with the 2025-2026 kindergarten students enrolled in Allegan Public Schools, Fennville Public Schools, and Plainwell Community Schools.

The account begins with an initial seed deposit of $65. Monthly "Deposit Days" will be held at each participating elementary building for children to begin saving to learn! Opportunities for incentives will be available annually.

My Future Fund's goals are to maximize educational assets for families, increase post-secondary enrollment rates, and provide resources that encourage financial literacy to our young learners.

"This grant from CEDAM allows us to launch the My Future Fund as a pilot in three local school districts: Allegan, Fennville, and Plainwell," stated Stephanie Calhoun, President/CEO at the Allegan County Community Foundation. "Our goal is to expand this opportunity to all districts in Allegan County as additional funding/donations become available, so that every child has the tools and support they need to pursue their future."

The launch event for Allegan Public Schools' kindergarten students and their families was on Tuesday, January 13th, 2026, and on Thursday, January 15th for Fennville students. Because of concerns with impending weather, the launch in Plainwell was cancelled, but Plainwell students will have a chance to enjoy the fun during upcoming events.

Students loved the ACCF Mascot, who is a fun-loving student. At this time, the Mascot has no official name. Once Plainwell students have the opportunity to vote, the ballots will be counted to determine if

The My Future Fund mascot, whose name is yet to be decided, and President/CEO of the Allegan County Community Foundation (ACCF) Stephanie Calhoun take a moment to participate in a photo opportunity during the Allegan Public School launch of My Future Fund for kindergarten students. The evening not only provided information for parents about the new program but engaged students and their families in math games and activities. Photo: Pamela Armstrong the Mascot will be Ace, Al or Cash. Stay tuned.

Those gathered at the launch events enjoyed participating in mathematics activities and were introduced to the program. "All activities were designed around math and counting, making the experience both educational and interactive," said Youth Services Manager, Amanda Chappell. "The families who attended were highly engaged at each station. We were very pleased with the level of engagement."

The My Future Fund is more than just a savings program; it's a long-term investment in the potential of Allegan County's students.

the seed money, which was deposited into every kindergarten student's account."

"This program is designed to grow alongside our community. It supports financial literacy, promotes future planning, and encourages community-wide engagement. Every contribution, whether from a donor, volunteer, school, or local business, helps shape a stronger, more resilient Allegan County for generations to come," stated Stephanie Calhoun, ACCF President and CEO.

My Future Fund currently has funding partnership opportunities to invest in the future of Allegan County beyond the grant period. If you are interested in supporting My Future Fund in your town – contact myfuturefund@alleganfoundation.org and learn more about the program at <https://myfuturefund.accf.org/>.

For those new to the Allegan County Community Foundation (ACCF), it was established in 1965 with the first endowment fund created in 1969 by Ethol Stone. By pairing donors' charitable intentions with the needs that exist in Allegan County, ACCF has been able to engage in the unique privilege of a community foundation. The mission of the Allegan County Community Foundation is to positively impact Allegan County through financial stewardship, education and community partnerships.

CEDAM is a nonprofit membership association that strives to build vibrant communities across Michigan. Their capacity-building programs, policy advocacy, and training events emphasize supporting communities in the areas of affordable housing, economic growth, and wealth-building at both the federal and state levels. A number of municipalities across Allegan County have benefited from CEDAM funding.

Genetski warns of fake IRS tax lien letters

Allegan County Clerk and Register of Deeds Bob Genetski warns county residents to be extremely cautious regarding letters that purport to be from the IRS claiming a federal tax lien has been placed in the recipient's name. The letter entitled: IRS DEBT NOTIFICATION looks official but is a scam most likely to steal peoples' personal information.

"Congressman Bill Huizenga's Office reached out to the IRS and confirmed that the letter is a fake," Genetski indicated.

The Clerk-Register was alerted to the scam when numerous worried constituents began calling the Register of Deeds Office to confirm whether or not a lien had been placed on their property.

The Saugatuck Republican noted "the letter looks very official including the legal disclaimer at the top."

County officials encourage those who receive such a letter or similar suspicious mail to call the Register of Deeds Office at (269) 673-0390 or review their land records on the county's online searchable database at <https://www.allegancounty.org/departments/register-of-deeds> to see if any liens have been place on one's property.

"Do not respond to this letter or any similar scam by giving up personal information over the phone. That is what they are after," warned Genetski.

Fennville designated as “redevelopment ready” by MEDC

For its efforts in establishing a solid foundation to attract private investment and further build on municipal assets, Fennville has been awarded the Redevelopment Ready Communities (RRC) certification, the Michigan Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) announced.

MEDC officially designates Fennville as a Certified RRC in Michigan. Fennville now joins a distinguished group of 87 Michigan communities from all regions of the state that have qualified as “thoroughly prepared” in their planning and zoning efforts. This designation aims to eliminate traditional barriers and foster opportunities for potential investment. For a complete list of RRCs, visit miplace.org.

“Our mission at MEDC is to support Michigan’s strong economic momentum and empower communities to establish a strong planning, zoning and economic development foundation,” said MEDC SVP of Community Planning and Development Readiness Michele Wildman. “The City of Fennville is well positioned to continue to implement their vision for the future and further improve the quality of life for its residents. We look forward to building upon our relationship with the City of Fennville and supporting local economic development efforts.”

As an RRC participant, the City of Fennville received a comprehensive assessment that measured current community and economic development practices compared to RRC best practice standards. Communities leverage the RRC toolkit to integrate transparency, predictability, and efficiency into local economic development practices. Certification is a compelling indicator that a community has removed development barriers and streamlined processes to be more competitive and attractive for investment. “This recognition by the Michigan Economic Development Corporation reflects our team’s commitment to building a more transparent, investor-ready, and community-driven development environment,” said City Administrator Katie Beemer. “The work we’ve accomplished through RRC—strengthening our policies, engagement plans, and redevelopment tools—has positioned Fennville to attract strategic investments that support our long-term goals and preserve what makes our community special. Fennville’s Redevelopment Ready Communities certification reflects more than just a process—it represents real progress for our residents. It shows that our city is not only open for business, but also intentional about how we grow.”

As a certified community, Fennville will have access to new tools to implement its community development goals as well as ongoing support and technical assistance from the RRC team. Annual check-ins and updates will help ensure the city continues implementing the best practices over time. Certification is active for five years before needing to be renewed.

“Earning Redevelopment Ready Communities Certification is a proud milestone for the City of Fennville,” said Mayor Carlos Lopez. “The Redevelopment Ready Communities program has helped us lay the groundwork for development that reflects our values and benefits everyone who calls Fennville home. This recognition by the MEDC affirms that we’re ready to welcome investments that strengthen our downtown, support local businesses, and improve quality of life for our entire community.”

Laketown OKs pay hikes, postpones road work

By JIM HAYDEN
CORRESPONDENT

The Laketown Township Board Jan. 14 approved 3-percent pay increases for its members during the upcoming fiscal year April 1 through March 31, 2027.

The supervisor, clerk and treasurer will each make $18,030 for the year. Trustees will each make $5,464.

In other business, the board:

- Postponed paving 61st Street north of 138th Avenue from 2026 to 2027 due to delays by the Allegan County Road Commission in acquiring easements, according to Supervisor Steven Ringelberg. The dead-end is one of the few dirt roads left in the township.
- Approved zoning ordinance changes proposed by the planning commission.

- Approved the 2026 Poverty Exemption Resolution as recommended by assessor Don Jollay. For complete information on this exemption, contact Jollay at don@laketowntwp.org.
- Approved the board meeting schedule for 2026-2027. Members will meet at 5 p.m. on the first Wednesday of the month and 6 p.m. on the second Wednesday. Meetings are at the township hall, 4338 Beeline Road.
- Postponed the manager review until the board’s March meeting.
- Agreed to have trustee Mike Koeman and supervisor Ringelberg meet with manager Stephanie Fox to refine the manager’s goals for 2026-2027.

Book Review: 99 Ways to Die

By Terri Schlichenmeyer

Whew! You dodged a bullet there.

The test came out well, you made the right call, your reaction time was lightning-fast, a decision came quick, and you saved yourself and the situation. Take a deep breath. You’ll live to fight another day, and with “99 Ways to Die” by Ashely Alker, MD, you’ll know what to watch out for tomorrow.

As “a board-certified death escapistologist” who works in emergency rooms, Dr. Alker has seen it all – including things that are “terrifying, interesting, and unfortunate.” She’s fully aware of a lot of ways for the average human to leave this Earthly life.

Many of them are unnecessary, which is why she wrote this cautionary book.

Say, for example, you have a rash that you can’t explain. You didn’t lie in poison ivy or rub a Carolina Reaper on your skin. Better check with a dermatologist. That rash might be something mild – or it could be leprosy.

That leftover pizza on the counter looks good the next day, but don’t eat it. It could lead to botulism or another deadly food poisoning. Think an expired medicine is safe? It might be – or it might poison you. Do you really want to take a chance?

Stay away from wild animals, especially monkeys and bats. If you’re merely in a room with a bat, in fact, go directly to the hospital and get an anti-rabies vaccine. Don’t let yourself get too hot or too cold. Don’t lean on car doors during a lightning storm. Stay away from spiders, scorpions, and pretty much everything in the ocean and in Australia.

Swimming in a non-chlominated pool of water can be dangerous, Alker says, especially if you get the water in your nose. Get vaccinated for tetanus, polio, hepatitis, measles, Covid-19, and whatever else your doctor recommends. Don’t ever minimize chest pain. To be totally safe, don’t sleep around and don’t get pregnant, she says.

And finally, “be nice to scientists; they have access to prehistoric zombie viruses.”

Of course, you want to live a long and healthy life. You know how to do that. Kind of. But what about the chancy things you do, the ones you don’t know might kill you? What about the ones you find inside “99 Ways to Die”?

Serious, and seriously funny, author Ashely Alker, MD guides readers through all the risky things that humans do, and exactly why we should not do them. Her first-hand ER stories are wildly interesting to read, and the information she offers is solid despite a gleefully wicked sense of humor that doesn’t hold back. Having this book will help keep you alive and it’s really a lot of fun to read – even if doing or avoiding some of the things you’ll learn are dangerous is sometimes no fun at all.

Grown-up readers of any age can find something in this book to learn and follow. though beware: there’s certainly some controversy here. Still, you can’t live without what you find in “99 Ways to Die,” so give it a shot.

SALUTE TO PROFESSIONAL SERVICES: SUPPORTING ALLEGAN COUNTY BEHIND THE SCENES

Across Allegan County, professional service providers work quietly behind the scenes to keep communities running smoothly. Accountants, attorneys, bankers, real estate professionals, insurance agents, engineers, consultants, and many others provide the expertise that helps individuals, families, and businesses navigate both major milestones and everyday decisions.

Professional services play a vital role in local life. They help families buy homes, plan for retirement, manage estates, and protect what matters most. They assist entrepreneurs as they open new businesses, guide established companies through expansion, and help employers adapt to changing regulations and economic conditions. While much of this work happens outside the public spotlight, its impact is visible in strong businesses, stable neighborhoods, and thoughtful community growth.

These professions are built on trust and long-standing relationships. Many local professionals serve clients they have known for years, and in some cases, generations. They understand the unique needs of Allegan County’s towns and rural communities, and they bring both technical knowledge and a personal connection to their work. Whether guiding a client through a complex legal matter, helping a family secure financing, or offering financial advice during uncertain times, their role often extends far beyond a simple transaction.

Professional service providers also play an important role in civic life. Many volunteer their time, serve on nonprofit boards, support youth programs, and contribute their expertise to community organizations. Others offer pro bono or reduced-cost services when neighbors face hardship, ensuring that professional guidance remains accessible when it is needed most.

The value of professional services becomes especially clear during periods of change or uncertainty. As laws evolve, markets shift, and new opportunities emerge, these professionals help residents and businesses move forward with confidence. Their ability to provide clarity, stability, and sound advice helps Allegan County remain resilient.

At the Allegan County News, Commercial Record, and Union Enterprise, we recognize the dedication of those working in professional services across our county. Today, we salute their knowledge, integrity, and commitment to serving others. Their work helps build a strong foundation for Allegan County, supporting progress today and well into the future.

OBITUARIES

Charles M. Setter

Charles M. “Chuck/Charlie” Setter, 86, entered into eternal rest in the early morning hours of January 9th, 2026, at Bronson Hospital in Kalamazoo, Michigan, after a very brief illness. He was 6 weeks shy of turning 87 years old.

Chuck was born February 19th, 1939, in Allegan, the son of Felix and Charlotte (Baugh) Setter. He was a lifetime member of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church in Allegan. He was also a Member of the Knights of Columbus #2515. He was very grounded in his Catholic faith which was very evident to his family.

There were many shenanigans to be had throughout his youth with his cousins Dick Levett, Tom Locatis, Max Hiscock and friends Mel Taylor, Terry Skoglund, Bill Austin, Dale Christman. Many of them occurred in the vicinity of Miner Lake.

He graduated from Allegan High School, class of 1956. After graduation, he was accepted and ready to attend Western Michigan University, to earn a degree in engineering. Just prior to the start of the school year, he decided that he was done with books and studying and never pursued that degree. He was a smart man and would prove to the world that he didn’t need that piece of paper.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Helen J. Conley on February 8th, 1964, in Allegan.

In October of 1965, he became a first-time father to Tamra. Their second child, Teresa, was born in December of 1966 and their 3rd daughter, Cristine, joined the family in December of 1970.

Chuck was a mechanical genius and an amazing welder. Cars were his passion. Especially fast cars. He would diagnose and repair a number of car problems over the years, but his specialty was upgrading power and performance of any vehicle and building fast race motors. He had a hand in tuning a dragster, Corvette drag car, Mini-champ, his own Chevy II #411, at Berlin Raceway and Kalamazoo Speedway. His last racing venture was helping Jacob Caines with his racing career.

Charles M. Setter

He was THE technical inspector at Kalamazoo Speedway during the ‘80s and ‘90s. He loved that job! He would pride himself on catching the “cheaters” and evicting them from the track. They would try to argue with him, but little did they know they never stood a chance.

He and his wife Helen, along with other family members and friends, established the Allegan County Snowmobile Club in 1973. Lots of love and hard work went into founding that organization.

Shortly after his retirement at age 49 from Rockwell International, Chuck bought and proudly restored a 1925 Rumley Oil Pull with some prodding from his son-in-law, Bill. He and Helen would travel to tractor shows for many years, enjoying all the old tractors, especially John Deere, and hanging out with their tractor friends. Sometimes the grandkids would hang out with them as well, riding on a tractor in the parade.

Chuck loved his family dearly including all his Pomeranians he had throughout the years. However, Ozzie, the first one, was his favorite. He loved animals, especially dogs and Tiger the Creech cat, who would come to him when he called him.

In his later years, he enjoyed attending Charlie’s and Anna’s soccer games. Those two were beasts on the field. He liked watching Will play baseball and traveling to Allegan Marching Band competitions for Will, Ben and Sam, with a couple trips to Ford Field!

He is survived by his wife, Helen of 61 years (1 month shy of 62), daughters Tamra (Bob) Mastenbrook, of Kalamazoo, Teresa (Bill) Creech, of Allegan and Cristine (Ron) Fisher of Kalamazoo. Siblings Kay Setter-Kline, of Portage, and Joan Kiefer, of Allegan. Grandchildren Benjamin Creech, Charlotte Creech, Will Croteau, Sam Croteau and Anna Mastenbrook. One sister-in-law, Wanda Conley and one brother-in-law, Steve Wright. Many nieces and nephews, Kline, Shank and Kiefer, Conley, Jensen, Thompson, Kurtz, Remington, Peters, Pickin, Wright and Locatis families.

Chuck was preceded in death by his parents, his in-laws W.E. and Shirley Conley, Bobby & Margaret Conley, Billie & Paul Jensen, Jimmy Conley, Anna Wright, Nancy & Tom Locatis as well as good friends Melvin Taylor and Bill & Sharon Abraham.

On Saturday, January 17th, we will celebrate Chuck’s life by praying the rosary at 10:30 am and offering a Mass in his memory at 11:00 am, both at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, 110 N. Cedar Street, Allegan, MI 49010. Visitation and luncheon will follow at 12:30 pm at The Silo, 1071 32nd Street (M-40 South), Allegan. Cremation has taken place. A private internment will take place at a later date.

In lieu of flowers and in Chuck’s honor, the family has established the Charles Setter Automotive Trade School Scholarship through the Allegan County Community Foundation. This scholarship is for any senior of Allegan High School that is pursuing a career in the automotive repair industry after graduation.

diligently in ensuring that all are given fair, timely, and trusted justice. But when decisions are appealed, the appeals of the District and Probate Courts are heard by the Circuit Court. People appealing decisions of the Circuit Court go to the state level.

While most citizens see only the more public layer of the courts, there are many administrative responsibilities that fall to the chief judge, there include a number of issues in which the chief judge must be involved in and offer input, and at times be the final authority.

As the Honorable Antkoviak shared, “From the administrative perspective, I would argue that the role is more like a chief administrator position. So, I handle all sorts of aspects about the governance of the courts including docket assignments plus hiring and firing. Ultimately, those decisions are left with me. It’s a level of responsibility that is different in every court, but it requires a lot of thought and contemplation. I enjoy the challenge and dealing with the situations.”

Antkoviak explained that being chief judge leads to a new level of understanding. Reflecting back, “Just taking the bench initially was very enlightening. From the perspective of being a practicing attorney, you are part of a process, but as a judge, you are looking at it from the other side. That is, looking at all of the factors going into not only making a decision in a particular case, but running the court as a whole. That is only one piece of the puzzle as a whole because as in the judiciary, I look at our court systems as collateral and collaborative. I think there are many things that we do as judges where we can work together, so we have monthly meetings called the Judicial Council where we get together and talk about issues that affect us as a whole.”

Those issues in common can relate to courthouse security, the use of technology in hearing cases, and other pieces that affect all of the judges and their staffs. The judges collaborate to find a combined solution or increase understanding with input from all sectors. In that way, the judges work together on the issues.

“When you are a judge, you are responsible for setting the tone while setting the policies,” reflected Antkoviak. “In any process as an attorney, you get to know how different judges work and how different systems work. It is different when you are on the other side.”

For the Judicial Council, one concern that arose during the construction of the newest section of the courtrooms was the height of the judge’s bench. During the building process, an incident arose in a court in another part of the country when a defendant jumped over judge’s bench. The potential for having a litigant jump over the bench became part of the conversation. By working with contractors, a solution was found.

As Judge Antkoviak looked forward, several thoughts came to mind. First was the need to adjust schedules because those involved may be needed in several courts, so times must be taken into consideration. Administratively, there is importance in carrying out those tasks efficiently with clear communication. Weekly meetings with circuit court staff, anchored by Court Administrator Jennifer Brink, remained high on the list of goals. In addition, the desire for a monthly meeting with the Allegan County Clerk was needed to assist in the process.

“I want to continue having good conversations and open dialogue about how the circuit court can better work together not only to meet the needs of the litigants but also the employees in the court system,” explained Judge Antkoviak. “So that would be one of my main goals.

“Obviously, there are others we work closely with,” continued the Judge. “The CCAB [County Correction Advisory Board] is important as it relates to keeping informed about what is going on with some of the alternatives to incarceration and the services they provide. We also have the Legal Assistance Center that is not part of the Circuit Court, but they assist with the administration of the court by assisting low income litigants. By helping people handle legal matters that would be extremely difficult to navigate without an attorney, people are able to navigate the paper work and system.”

As Judge Antkoviak continued to explore goals during the coming years, training came to mind that judges attend. Some are offered at the statewide level through the State Court Administrative office.

Specific to Allegan County, the judges maintain involvement with the Specialty Courts. Again, these give judges options when working with litigants. Judges are assigned to the different courts. At this time, Judge Antkoviak is involved with the Business Court, which is a Specialty Court designed to handle litigation between businesses quickly and efficiently.

“The premise of the Business Court is to get to heart of the matter and resolve the issue quickly and efficiently with minimal cost,” reflected Antkoviak. “This will get them back to work in a way that will benefit all. When a third judge was assigned to Allegan County, the State mandated that a Business Court be established. It was natural for me to take all the business litigation cases as part of my responsibilities. Judge Margaret Bakker has the Swift and Sure Sanctions Probation program, and Judge Jipp assists the Adult Treatment Court.”

In short, Judge Antkoviak wants to have all of the facts in business cases while being sensitive to the knowledge that businesses must be in operation in order to complete their work.

During monthly Judicial Council meetings that are run by Judge Jolene Clearwater of the Probate Court, Judge Clearwater, Chief Judge Antkoviak and Chief Judge Joseph S. Skocelas and their staffs can have meaningful conversations.

Judge Skocelas was appointed to the 57th District Court on April 26, 2006. This is the third time Judge Skocelas has taken the reins as chief judge. As with Judge Antkoviak, he works closely with his Court Administrator Laurie Tange and the State Court Administrator to manage policy, budget, administration, and day-to-day operations of their courts.

Even with the added responsibilities associated with a chief judge, both judges keep a pulse on community needs and programs to meet those needs as alluded to by Chief Justice Cavanagh. Judge Skocelas has been an instructor at Kalamazoo Valley Community College, the Allegan County Sheriff’s Department Reserve Academy, and the Citizen’s Police Academy for the Allegan County Sheriff’s Department and the Michigan State Police. In response to needs, he founded the “Court in the Schools” program for Allegan County High Schools in 2007 and the first Specialty Court in Allegan County, the Mental Health Treatment Court in 2009 that has 152 successful graduates of the program to date. Judge Antkoviak has kept a pulse on the City of Allegan Planning and Parks Commission, been involved in the Court in the Schools Program, along with the Forgotten Man Ministries.

Congratulations to both of these judges for their appointments and going beyond normal duties as a judge to address the needs of the litigants in Allegan County’s courts.

Trailblazers earn historic victory over Zeeland West

BY JASON WESSELDYK
SPORTS EDITOR

ZEELAND—During the offseason, Saugatuck girls basketball coach Kevin Tringali had a goal of beefing up his team’s non-conference schedule.

“We felt like it was important for us to add some quality games to our schedule,” he said. “We’d get to the post-season the past few years, and we’d realize we probably weren’t as prepared as we could have been and we wanted to face some tougher challenges during the season to get us ready.”

No non-conference game was bigger—both in terms of the size of the school and challenge—than the one at Zeeland West on Tuesday, Jan. 13.

The Dux, like Saugatuck, entered the game unbeaten.

And not only did the Trailblazers prove they could hold their own, but they actually came away with the 43-40 victory.

The win upped Saugatuck, ranked seventh in Division 3, to 8-0. Zeeland West fell to 7-1.

“This was such a great test for our team and we’re so thankful to Zeeland West for their willingness to put us on their schedule,” Tringali said. “I honestly didn’t care about the outcome. I just wanted to get our girls in a game like this against a very good team in a tough environment.”

“The fact that we were able to come away with the win just adds to the experience. I could not be prouder of the way our girls stepped up and played.”

It was just the kind of performance that Tringali thinks will help his team when the step on the court for the postseason play at the end of February.

“Last season when we got to regionals, we knew we were a little overmatched,” he said. “This year, we’ll be able to look back at games like this and know we’ve gone toe-to-toe with some very good teams, which should give us a lot of confidence.”

“Our goal is to take that next step and join that upper echelon of teams in Division 3. Hopefully, this is a step in that process.”

Tringali was particularly pleased with the defense from his team.

The goal was to contain Zeeland West’s Sadie Kragt, who entered the game averaging about 18 points per game. She was limited to 13 by the Trailblazers, but she only connected on two field goals as the rest of her points came from the line.

Mylah Simpson led the defensive effort against Kragt, while fellow guards Talia Laskowski and Penny Grob also helping out.

“We studied Zeeland quite a bit,” Tringali said. “We watched a lot of film and had the chance to go see them play on a Saturday. We knew they scored a lot more on dribble-and-drives than from the perimeter, so we wanted to take that away from them.”

“That started with keying in on Kragt, and the girls really executed. We used a box-and-one on (Kragt), and it was Mylah who took the lead on that with Talia and Penny also doing a great job.”

Tringali was proud of the way the Trailblazers responded on the offensive end.

“We’re a team that averages between five and eight 3-pointers per game,” he said. “In this game, we had two. So we had to really grind it out and figure out other ways to score.”

Laskowski led the offensive charge with, accounted for both of Saugatuck’s 3-pointers and finishing with a game-best 23 points.

The second of her triples came midway through the fourth quarter. She followed that up with a traditional 3-point play on a steal-turned-layup to put the Trailblazers up by 10 points with 3:12 remaining.

Zeeland West made a rallied to cut the gap to three points with waning seconds following a basket by Kragt, but the Dux could get no closer.

“This is just such a huge win for our program in terms of getting us where we want to be,” Tringali said. “A big part of our success has been our team chemistry. These girls really like each other and have a lot of fun on and off the court. That showed out there.”

Simpson added 12 points for Saugatuck, followed by six from Charlee Gustafson. Simpson, Gustafson, Laskowski and Grob also snagged five rebounds each, good for second on the team behind Ada Roth with seven.

Saugatuck followed up that history-making win by traveling to Gobles for a divisional game on Friday, Jan. 16.

After a slow start that saw them down 12-8 after one quarter, the Trailblazers raced back to take a 28-21 halftime lead.

The second half was all Saugatuck, as a 37-15 scoring edge resulted in a 65-36 win.

“Our pressure defense and timely three balls helped us in the second half,” Tringali said.

Simpson had a season high 30 points, including three of her team’s eight 3-pointers. Laskowski finished with 12 points and Grob added nine.

“We were stuck in the mud a bit to start off, but we figured it out,” Tringali said. “This team doesn’t need to be reminded about trap games after Tuesday’s big night. And despite the early goings, I was happy with our effort.”

Clippers start strong in win over Black River

MARTIN—Throughout the season, slow starts have plagued the Martin boys basketball team.

The Clippers changed that when they hosted Holland Black River in a divisional showdown on Friday, Jan. 16.

Martin took a 12-5 lead at the end of the opening stanza and never looked back in securing the 53-37 to improve to 3-8.

“It was a nice win for us tonight,” Martin coach Corby Callaway said. “We got off to a good start and just kept building off that as the night went on.”

The Clippers outscored Black River in each of the first three quarters, going up 23-13 at halftime and 39-21 at the end of three quarters.

Black River did hold a 16-14 scoring edge in the final frame, but Martin had the game well in hand at that point.

“I saw some really good things on the defensive end of the floor and we executed our offense probably as well as we have all season,” Callaway said.

Ethan Fitzpatrick scored a game-best 19 points to go with three rebounds. Blake Sweeting had a double-double with 13 points and 16 rebounds to go with six steals and four blocks.

Jason Marshall (eight points, six assists, five rebounds and three steals) and Weson Elkins (seven assists and five rebounds) also contributed.

Another area that stood out to Callaway was the play of his reserves.

“We got some great contributions from our bench,” he said. “It was a nice way to end a long week for us.”

Five inducted into Plainwell Hall of Fame

BY JASON WESSELDYK
SPORTS EDITOR

Plainwell High School honored its 2026 Athletic Hall of Fame class on Friday, Jan. 16, during a ceremony held between the girls and boys varsity basketball games against Niles.

The Hall of Fame recognizes former Plainwell athletes and coaches who made significant contributions to Trojan athletics during their time at the high school and beyond. This year’s class included four former Plainwell athletes and one longtime coach.

The 2026 inductees are Shannon Cunningham (Carrier), Kyle Farris, Sarah Owens (Morrell), Dalton Smith and Bill Switzer.

Here’s a closer look at each of these Trojan standouts:

Shannon (Carrier) Cunningham

Cunningham was a three-sport athlete at Plainwell, competing in volleyball, basketball and soccer. She served as a captain in all three sports and went on to have a standout soccer career at Grand Valley State University.

During her time at GVSU, Cunningham was a four-time All-GLIAC selection and a three-time NCAA Division II All-Region honoree. She finished her collegiate career with 119 points, placing her among the program’s career leaders.

Her assist totals remain among the best in school history, ranking fourth all-time. Cunningham’s collegiate accomplishments led to her induction into the GVSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2019.

Kyle Farris

Farris was a four-year varsity player for Plainwell soccer and served as a two-time team captain. He helped lead Plainwell to a state semifinal appearance in 2010 and earned consecutive All-State, All-Region and All-District honors during his career.

After graduating, Farris continued his playing career at Western Michigan University. He later returned to Plainwell as the girls varsity head soccer coach, where he guided the program to a conference championship in 2016 and received Coach of the Year recognition.

Farris remains involved in the sport as an assistant coach with the Western Michigan University women’s soccer program.

Sarah (Morrell) Owens

Owens was a four-year varsity basketball starter who helped lead Plainwell to a 72-17 record over her high school career. Her senior season included a school-record 23-1 finish and a trip to the Regional Finals.

She is the program’s all-time leading scorer with 1,363 career points and led the team in scoring and rebounding all four seasons. Owens played multiple positions throughout her career and earned three All-State selections, including First Team honors as a senior.

She was also named the Kalamazoo Gazette All-Area Player of the Year.

Dalton Smith

Smith competed for Plainwell wrestling from 2003 to 2006 and became the program’s first four-time state qualifier and first two-time state champion. He claimed titles at 119 pounds and 125 pounds, defeating a returning state champion during his junior run.

Smith finished his high school career with 181 victories, which ranks second in program history. He also recorded 337 takedowns and won multiple conference, district and regional titles.

Bill Switzer

Switzer played a foundational role in the development of Plainwell wrestling. He helped launch the program in 1964, converting an informal student wrestling club into a varsity sport by the 1965-66 season.

To prepare for coaching, Switzer attended university camps and worked with experienced coaches to learn the sport. Under his leadership, Plainwell produced early conference champions and state qualifiers.

Switzer transitioned to an assistant coaching role in 1971 and continued to serve the program until retiring from coaching in 1976. His work established the structure and culture that allowed Plainwell wrestling to grow in the decades that followed.

Clippers upend visiting Black River

By JASON WESSELDYK

MARTIN—Torryn Harris did a little bit of everything for the Martin girls basketball team when it hosted Holland Black River on Friday, Jan. 16.

In addition to scoring 13 points, Harris also came up with eight steals, snagged six rebounds and dished out five assists.

That performance helped the Clippers cruise to the 53-20 win.

Only Anna Jager scored more points than Harris in the victory, as she went for 17.

And most of that damage by Jager came in the opening quarter.

On the strength of three 3-pointers, Jager went for 11 points in the opening frame to help Martin take a 22-4 lead.

That set the tone for the rest of the game, as the Clippers led 30-16 at half-time and 45-16 after three quarters.

“I thought this was a great game on both sides of the floor,” Martin coach Eric Zugweg said. “It always starts with our defense and we held Black River to one 3-pointer the night, caused a lot of turnovers and overall played with great energy.

“On the offensive side of the ball, we came out shooting really well and ended up with three players in double figures and had seven girls score for us.”

Kylie Meyers joined Jager and Harris in double figures with 10 points to go with five rebounds and three steals.

Jager also had the hot hand in Martin’s game with Grand Rapids Sacred Heart on Tuesday, Jan. 14.

In that game, Jager scored 27 points to lead the Clippers to a 53-36 triumph.

Harris, Aliyah DeGlopper and Kayden Jager each chipped in with seven points.

“I thought we shot the ball very well and played scrappy defense throughout the game,” Zudweg said. “Sacred Heart played hard and gave us a tough game. They’re a well-coached team.”

Martin outscored Sacred Heart in each quarter, including an 11-5 edge in the first frame to set the tone.

Allegan boys compete well after losing Thrash to injury

For the record, the Allegan boys basketball team dropped its home game with Kalamazoo Hackett on Tuesday, Jan. 13, by a final score of 64-41.

That score, however, was secondary to another loss suffered by the Tigers.

Less than 30 seconds into the first quarter, Allegan point guard Brandon Thrash went down with an injury while driving the lane.

He didn’t return and was later diagnosed with a broken leg. Thrash will miss the remainder of the season.

“The game plan completely changed after Brandon got hurt,” first-year Allegan coach Brian Baker said. “It really shook the kids up a little bit. And the rest of the game we ended up playing with only eight players.”

The early loss of Thrash played a big role in the Tigers starting the game in a 15-4 hole following the first quarter of play. By halftime, the deficit stood at 33-14.

The second half was much closer, with Hackett holding a 31-27 edge. Allegan won the fourth quarter by a 15-13 margin.

“What I was pleased with was the kids did not quit the whole game,” Baker said. “In fact, this was probably the first game where we played effort wise all four quarters.”

Ayden Fusco led the way for Allegan with 12 points and 12 rebounds. Braydn Kosoroski nearly joined him with a double-double, going for 10 points and eight rebounds.

Colby Bishop had nine points, while Liam Antonie had six points. Nathan Martinez added four points and “played great defense,” according to Baker.

Baker also praised the contributions of Hayden

McAlpine and Matheson Vernia.

“Hayden and Matheson came off the bench and gave us some great minutes,” Baker said.

Allegan girls earn win over Delton

By JASON WESSELDYK
SPORTS EDITOR

DELTON—When the Allegan girls basketball team traveled to Delton on Tuesday, Jan. 13, the Tigers were at less than full strength.

Sickness had hampered the Tigers’ roster, limiting how many players were available for first-year coach Ernie Ramirez.

“We had multiple players recovering from the flu,” Ramirez said.

Despite that challenge, the Tigers found a way to persevere and wound up claiming the 28-21 victory.

The win was the first of the season for Allegan following five straight defeats.

“We were able to keep it a low-scoring affair with great defensive stop throughout the game and just enough offense to get the job done,” Ramirez said.

Jayden VandenAkker starred for the Tigers.

In addition to leading the offense with 11 points, VandenAkker also played a stellar defensive game. She limited Delton’s leading scorer to eight points.

“Jayden is a heck of a player and she showed that tonight,” Ramirez said.

Allegan was scheduled to travel to Dowagiac for a non-conference game on Wednesday, Jan. 14, before hosting South Haven on Friday, Jan. 16.

Both of those games were postponed due to weather, however.

Saugatuck boys pick up first win of season

By JASON WESSELDYK

SAUGATUCK—It’s been said that good things come to those who wait.

That was the case for the Saugatuck boys basketball team.

After dropping their first eight games of the season, the Trailblazers broke into the win column thanks to a 44-37 decision over visiting Muskegon Catholic Central on Tuesday, Jan. 13.

“We got a win,” second-year Saugatuck coach Ty Rock said. “We gave ourselves a chance and were able to execute down the stretch.”

Saugatuck trailed 33-28 after three quarters of play, but used a 16-4 advantage in the final frame to secure the victory.

Sammy Gamboa led the offense for the Trailblazers, scoring a team-best 14 points.

“We had a ton of turnovers as a team, so that continues to be a problem we need to correct,” Rock said. “But tonight, we will enjoy the victory.”

Saugatuck raced out to a 14-7 lead at the end of the opening quarter before trailing 25-23 at halftime.

The Trailblazers hoped to make it two wins in a row when they hosted Gobles on Friday, Jan. 16, but the Tigers had other ideas.

Gobles took an early lead and never trailed in handing Saugatuck the 67-33 loss.

PAW PAW—Brooke Smalldon continued her outstanding performance for Otsego this season when the Bulldogs traveled to Paw Paw on Friday, Jan. 16.

Smalldon scored 22 points to go with six rebounds, three assists and three steals to lead the Bulldogs to the 59-35 win.

Otsego, which improved to 7-1 overall and 6-0 in the Wolverine Conference, led 11-5 after one quarter and 28-13 at halftime.

And while pleased with the outcome, Otsego coach Tony Koshar thought the margin of victory should have been even greater.

“It wasn’t our best played game of the year, but the girls used another solid defensive effort to jump out early on the road,” he said. “It was one of those games where it felt like we should have had 80 points but we didn’t shoot the ball particularly well.

“But we used our defense to fuel multiple runs during the game to widen the lead as the game went on.”

Mya Engbers added nine points and five rebounds, while Peyton Johnson chipped in with seven points and four steals.

Three days earlier, the Bulldogs hosted Niles and won 49-30.

Otsego was without the services of starter Madden Fitzpatrick, who was home sick.

“It was a good win for us as we were without Madden,” Koshar said. “We challenged some of the other girls to step up to pick up the rebounding and scoring slack and we did a nice job of that.”

A win by Niles would have put them in a tie with Otsego atop the league standings, making the game even more important.

The Bulldogs outscored Niles by at least three points in each quarter, including a 15-9 edge in the opening stanza to take control.

“We played a steady first half and opened up a 9-point lead and then our pressure forced some turnovers in the third quarter as we extended it to over 20,” Koshar said. “It was a good team win for us.”

Smalldon had 19 points, seven rebounds, five assists and three blocks. Audrey Lingbeek added nine points and six rebounds, while Engbers and Johnson finished with eight and seven points, respectively.

Allegan edges past Otsego to win league swim & dive dual

By JASON WESSELDYK
SPORTS EDITOR

Allegan earned an 88-75 victory over a very strong Otsego squad on Tuesday night in a dual that stayed tight until the late stages. The Tigers leaned on depth and relay execution to create just enough separation on the scoreboard. Allegan swept all three relays, starting with the medley team of Sam Kelley, Corbin Chopp, Cadel Conrad and Oliver Burnett, which opened the meet with a win. The 200 freestyle relay of Chopp, Kelley, Josh Kelley and Burnett followed with another first-place finish, and the 400 freestyle relay group of John DeLaet, Ezra Smith, Conrad and Burnett sealed the meet with a victory in the final relay. Individual wins also helped Allegan's cause. Chopp won the 100 breaststroke, Kelley took the 100 backstroke, and DeLaet claimed the 500 freestyle.

"The boys rose to the occasion," Allegan coach Carol Gephart said. "They raced with confidence and composure against a quality opponent." Otsego countered with six event victories of its own. Liam Smith swept the sprints with wins in the 50 freestyle (22.44) and 100 freestyle (49.19). Brayden Meyer doubled in the 200 IM (2:12.77) and 100 butterfly (59.21), while Danny Truong won diving (127.95) and Liam Raseman took the 200 freestyle (1:56.79).

Despite being short-handed, Otsego coach Darryl Belton liked what he saw from his group. "It was a good meet for us," Belton said. "We were a bit shorthanded but we were able to hang in there until the end." Brennan Perry is new and he had to step up and swim the 500 and he swam about 40 seconds faster than I was hoping. Danny Truong PR'd in diving and Brayden Meyer really came through after spraining his ankle in gym during the day. We were very resilient all night and everyone came and competed at a high level. I was very pleased with what I saw." Allegan filled the board with important second-and-third-place finishes. In the 200 freestyle, Chopp finished second and DeLaet took third. Conrad and Ezra Smith went 2-3 in both the 200 IM and 100 butterfly, while Kelley and Josh Kelley managed 2-3 finishes in the 50 freestyle. Burnett and Josh Kelley also placed 2-3 in the 100 freestyle, and Noah Greig added a third-place finish in the 100 breaststroke.

Martin wrestling shines at Hudson Super 16

By JASON WESSELDYK
SPORTS EDITOR

HUDSON—Martin wrestling made the trip to the Hudson Super 16 on Saturday and came home with hardware—including a Most Outstanding Wrestler award for Haylen Buell. En route to winning the title at 165 pounds, Buell secured signature victories over the No. 5 wrestler in Division 1 and No. 3 in Division 2. Three other Clippers also medaled: Zaiden Buell was third at 120 pounds; Logan Curry was fifth at 157 pounds; and Peyton Schuring-Harris was fifth at 285 pounds. The Hudson Super 16 is annually regarded as one of the toughest tournaments in Michigan. This year's field featured 39 teams and 119 wrestlers ranked in the top 10 of their respective weight classes. Martin more than held its own, finishing ninth overall. Clippers coach Logan Curry liked the way his team battled through deep brackets. "I'm proud of how hard the kids competed against this level of competition," he said. "Back to work Monday."

Broomstick Pool warms a frigid Allegan afternoon

By Gari Voss

Saturday, January 17, 2026, showed no sign of registering a temperature reading above 20 degrees, so to warm up, 12 teams (24 participants) gathered at Sherwood's Cove in Allegan for a Broomstick Pool Tournament.

For the typical pool player, chalking a pool cue and shooting a round of pool is pretty normal. When the pool cue is replaced with a broomstick, the degree of difficulty increases. But the 24 players, ranging from quite novice to quite experienced, were up for the task of shooting the white cue ball with no chalk to steady their cue.

The tournament was a double elimination which gave everyone a couple opportunities to demonstrate their prowess. The exciting finale saw Tim & Casey crowned undefeated champions with the $144 prize, while Frosty & Dillion took second place, earning $96.

For The Record

PEEK AT THE PAST

From the pages of The Allegan News and The Allegan County News and Gazette:

Jan. 25, 1951
Six Lazy Frogs Make Health Center Modern:

Six lazy, slippery frogs in the Allegan Health Center laboratory play an important part in making the hospital a leader in up-to-date medical services.

Ugly looking as they are, they still get tender care from laboratory technician Eleanor Hettinger. For these are Xenopus frogs from South Africa, used in essential tests for physicians in a wide area surrounding Allegan. The health center is one of only a few small-town hospitals providing services in this respect.

The Xenopus test is used when an early diagnosis of pregnancy is needed. It's fairly inexpensive and does much to ease patients' fears.

The frogs cost $7 by the dozen and are air-expressed from California. Most comparisons with Zenob (mouse) tests or Friedman (rabbit) tests show Xenopus is the best.

Diagnosis is made within 24 hours, sometimes an important factor in a patient's case. It has been found to be better than 98 per cent accurate.

Hectic pace for Queen Julie:

At the midpoint of her reign as Miss Michigan, Julie Beckers of Allegan, continues to travel at a hectic pace as an official representative of the state.

Following a holiday trip to Florida with her family, Jack and Sally Beckers, and three of their other children, Jackie, Kitty, and John, and her boyfriend, Bob Sosnowski, Julie was back in Allegan Jan. 10 for the Snow Safari.

She then had to cancel a trip to Illinois because of hazardous driving conditions, but flew to northern Wisconsin last weekend for the World Championship Snowmobile Race at Eagle River.

The Beckers family returned Saturday from Round Lake home New Year's Day following a week's vacation spent in Key West, a couple of days at Fort Myers, and two more days at Orlando where they toured Disney World.

Accompanied by Lynne Nahikian of Allegan, Julie rode her own Arctic Cat snowmobile in the 15-mile safari at White Cloud and reigned at a big dinner-and-dance following the safari.

Mrs. Beckers joined her daughter for the trip to Eagle River, Wis., a small summer resort town where tourists decided a few years ago to "beef up" the winter season with snowmobile races that have in recent years turned into a major attraction.

ISD plans new building:

The office building for the Allegan County Intermediate School District, located at the corner of M-40 South and Thomas Street on the south edge of Allegan, will soon get bigger. At the regular board meeting Monday, Jan. 22, the ISD approved architectural drawings for an addition.

Officials plan to begin construction of the addition around April 1 and to occupy the new space in late September.

The addition is a separate project from the overall process for new facilities and development and buildings management the ISD has engaged in the past year-and-a-half. ISD superintendent Robert Brenner said costs were manageable for the less extensive, more narrowly focused improvement project.

"This is a smaller building project, we're trying to deal with a certain specific problem, and we think we can deal with it out of the ISD operating budget," Brenner said.

Brenner said the ISD's portion of office space has been steadily reduced as the ISD's special education services have increased. The ISD serves regular education services to students only at the request of local public school districts that contract with the ISD for services, he said.

The ISD middle schools include one day treatment center and one center to serve severely impaired students. It also serves as a resource center for county special education students.

At 7,300 square feet, the addition will balloon the size of the administrative office building by more than 50 percent. The new wing will be one story to match the profile of the current 13,000-square-foot, red-brick building.

According to Brenner, the $1,182,000 project will be paid for out of the ISD operating budget. Almost half, $500,000, has already been set aside from general fund reserves in a building and site fund. Another $260,000 will be used for paid staff from state aid and local property tax revenues. Brenner said the last part of the payoff includes $328,000 in Durant money owed to the ISD.

Jan. 28, 2021

Julie Ann Beckers, the current Miss Michigan, has been on a hectic travel schedule since her reign began last June. Here she takes a moment for travel just for the sport of it—on a snowmobile she received recently.

Over 500 tires litter roads through Allegan game areas:

Blight has appeared in the news because of its affects on humans, wildlife and the environment. Recently, blight across Allegan County has been in the form of tires. The DNR reported, "A local resident who daily walks in the state game area reported the first pile of tires (more than 300) on Wednesday to the DNR's Report All Poaching hotline. The local confirmed that the tires—which covered snowmobile trail #59, were not there two days prior."

Tracy DenBleyker photographed the dumping of tires in the Allegan State Game Area. "A few weeks ago, it was on 122nd by the transfer station and another pile on 48th by the compost place. This weekend, there's a 200+ tires pile on 120th about a quarter mile east of 51st."

Steven Gilley expanded DenBleyker's observation, "Yes, there are more tires on 120th between 57th and 62nd. Right on the side of the road!"

Linda Caldwell took a picture of more tires she had seen Friday on 120th west of 57th.

Citizens are asking not only who is dumping the tires, but want anyone who observes the dumping to report these actions.

Observations may be similar to those shared by Chuck Weighman. "Someone has been hauling a lot of junk cars down 62nd Street towards 109th this week. There are 3 or 4 vehicles in a row following each other. I wonder if someone is cleaning out some property."

On Sunday, January 24th, Undersheriff Mike Larsen shared, "I also noticed some tires on 120th between 62nd and 57th Streets. I'll make sure the DNR is aware of that, but I'm sure they are as it is north central on the Fennville Farm Unit of the DNR."

TOWNSHIP OF GANGES
COUNTY OF ALLEGAN, STATE OF MICHIGAN
ORDINANCE NO. 67

ADOPTED: JANUARY 13, 2026
EFFECTIVE: JANUARY 30, 2026

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE GANGES TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE AND IMPOSE A TEMPORARY MORATORIUM ON RECREATIONAL VEHICLE PARKS AND CAMPGROUNDS

An Ordinance to protect the public health, safety, and welfare by establishing regulations relating to a moratorium on considering applications for recreational vehicle parks and campgrounds while the Township completes a study of the zoning regulations pertaining thereto and possible subsequent revisions to the current Zoning Ordinance; to provide for severability; to repeal all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict therewith; and to provide an effective date.

THE TOWNSHIP OF GANGES
ALLEGAN COUNTY, MICHIGAN
ORDAINS:
SECTION I
FINDINGS

In accordance with Public Act 246 of 1945, MCL 41.181 et seq., as amended, Ganges Township has determined the following:

1. It has been a significant period of time since the Ganges Township Zoning Ordinance has been studied with regard to recreational vehicle parks and campgrounds as a special use.
2. The Township Board, Planning Commissioners, and members of the public have provided substantial comments and information raising public health, safety, and welfare concerns regarding use of property within the Township for a recreational vehicle park and campground.
3. The Township Board has public health, safety, and welfare concerns regarding the special use of a recreational vehicle park and campground and finds that it requires time to study the zoning regulations with regard to such use.
4. The Township finds that imposing a moratorium upon the consideration of any applications for special use for a recreational vehicle park and campground, on a limited temporary basis, is reasonable and necessary for, among other reasons, the following reasons:
 - A. Michigan courts have recognized that a moratorium is a common and legitimate planning tool to preserve the status quo while formulating a development strategy.
 - B. The contemplated moratorium would allow the study of the public health, safety, and welfare concerns regarding the special use of a recreational vehicle park and campground and allow for any needed Zoning Ordinance update and implementation process to occur.

- C. The contemplated moratorium would allow the study and possible implementation of revisions to the Zoning Ordinance to occur with citizen input and involvement, public debate, and full consideration of all issues and points of view.
- D. The contemplated moratorium would allow for consideration of changes in land use that have occurred since the provisions regarding recreational vehicles and campgrounds were last addressed.

5. A moratorium should be imposed upon the consideration of any applications for special use recreational vehicle parks and campgrounds until June 30, 2026 or until an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance is adopted, whichever occurs first.

SECTION II
MORATORIUM

A temporary moratorium is imposed on the acceptance and/or processing of applications for RV parks or campgrounds, public or private, as defined by the Township Zoning Ordinance.

SECTION III
AMENDMENT TO GANGES TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

SECTION 6.2 TABLE OF USES IN THE R/A RESIDENTIAL AGRICULTURAL DISTRICT
Section 6.2 of the Ganges Township Zoning Ordinance, titled "Table of Uses" regarding the R/A Residential/Agricultural District is hereby amended to remove from the Table of Uses: "Campground, public or private."

SECTION IV
AMENDMENT TO GANGES TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

SECTION 11.2 TABLE OF USES IN THE C COMMERCIAL DISTRICT
Section 11.2 of the Ganges Township Zoning Ordinance, titled "Table of Uses" regarding the C Commercial District is hereby amended to remove from the Table of Uses: "Campground or RV park."

SECTION V
AMENDMENT TO GANGES TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

SECTION 18.6 SPECIFIC SPECIAL LAND USE

STANDARDS

Section 18.6 of the Ganges Township Zoning Ordinance, titled "Specific Special Land Use Standards" is hereby amended to strike Section 18.6(C) in its entirety, and in its place shall be written the following: "Campgrounds, public or private, are subject to a temporary moratorium. Special land use permit applications for campgrounds, public or private, shall not be considered until the moratorium expires."

SECTION VI
TERM OF MORATORIUM

The moratorium imposed by this ordinance will remain in effect until June 30, 2026, or until amendments to the Zoning Ordinance become effective, whichever occurs first. Before this moratorium expires, the Township Board may by resolution extend the moratorium as appropriate to allow sufficient time to complete amendments to its ordinances. If an extension is adopted, the Township will publish notice of the same.

SECTION VII
SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be severable. If any clause, sentence, word, section or provision is hereafter declared void or unenforceable for any reason by a court of competent jurisdiction, it shall not affect the remainder of such ordinance which shall continue in full force and effect.

SECTION VIII REPEAL

All ordinance or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

SECTION IX
EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall take effect eight days following publication following adoption.

RELIGION SECTION

Decades ago, our local newspaper published a 60-year-old photograph and article about Reverend and Mrs. Mettam shortly after his ordination into the Methodist church. Both of them were wearing industrial strength full length buffalo coats to protect them from the cold Minnesota winters.

He was still serving a church when I was a boy, and I asked him about the proverbial good old days. His first response was that they were not always so good. Then he added that sometimes the congregations could be as rough as a blizzard. “The national church handed down rules in the Book of Discipline, but a lot of the time individual churches added their own.” At one church he was told that chocolate was forbidden because the local board thought it was a prideful extravagance. He laughed and said that even when they were out of town they did not dare eat anyone because someone might see them.

At another church, when the Mettams were expecting their first child, the board came to the parsonage to tell them, after much nervous hemming and hawing, that Mrs. M should not return to church until after the child was born. Their message was hideous:

We know preacher’s kids are born like everyone else, but it upsets people to be reminded that you have been doing “it” in their parsonage. Reverend Mettam said, “And that was no way to live. The church board was wrong, and we were just as wrong for not standing up to them.”

We find the same situation in the 14th chapter of Romans where Paul writes about the church being divided on whether members could or could not eat meat. They appeal to Paul for guidance, and at first, his answer seems to suggest that only the weak in faith are strict vegans. Read it again, and a different message becomes obvious.

If we follow the first line of thinking, we miss the important message. Whether one is a vegan or carnivore or paleo, does not matter. Nor does one’s personal preference for strong cheese sardine and onion sandwiches, or any other food. Such things do not make one a good or bad Christian. Indeed, in this situation, the question of virtue should not arise.

The German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote, “He who loves his dream of a community more than the Christian community itself becomes the destroyer of the latter, even though his personal intentions may be ever so honest and earnest and sacrificial. When our vision of things should look like leads us to trample the people who are actually in the pews, we destroy our community.”

St. Paul puts the emphasis on looking past individual choices and working toward such good relationships that we truly are brothers and sisters united in one faith and one community. Instead of trampling over people, our task is to be tolerant, open, and welcoming to all people, most especially to those with whom we disagree.
